

Netherlands Airmail Society 'De Vliegende Hollander'

(The Flying Dutchman)

The Netherlands Airmail Society formed in 1936 is celebrating its 75th year with a air mail exhibition in Apeldoorn NL on 14-16 October 2011 in the Americahal together with the national stamp exhibition POSTEX 2011. We have 120 frames in total of Aerophilately. Americahal is situated at Laan van Erica 50, 7321 BX APPELDOORN NETHERLANDS.

Where can you find a centrally located venue that's practically free of traffic jams and, what's more, comes with 2,500 free parking spaces? It has to be the Apeldoorns Congress & Event Centre, the 'Americahal'.

There will be a special cover (in two formats) with a special postmark of this exhibition as we also celebrate the 50th day of Aerophilately on the same event. The cover has a special personalized stamp of our society.

Secondly, the Dutch Airmail catalogue will be updated with a new edition covering the airmail from the Netherlands and its former colonies.

Both covers and catalogue can be ordered from Willem van der Helm Secretary w.vanderhelm@veteranen.nl.

Further details may be obtained on the web-site www.de-vliegende-hollander.com, which is also in English.
